EULALIE.

Poetry by H.S. CORNWELL. Music by STEPHEN C. FOSTER.

Poco Adagio.

VOICE.

PIANO FORTE.

Blue-birds, linger here awhile, O'er this sacred grassy pile, Sing your sweetest songs to me— 'Tis the grave of Eu-la-lie. Roses white, around her tomb Gently wave and sweetly bloom, Let your si___lent language be_ "We will bloom for Eu_la_ _lie." Let your si___lent language be_ "We will bloom for Eu_la_lie."

3d Angels, guard her with your wings, Shield her from un__ho__ly things, Bid her

2d Streamlet, chant_ing at her feet Mournful mu___sic, sad and sweet, Wake her dream love-dreams of me,— Till I come, sleep, Eu-la-lie! Blue-birds, lin---ger here anot, she dreams of me 'Neath the yew-tree, Eu-la-lie! Eu-la-lie, but yes-ter-

-while, O'er this sa--cred gras-sy pile, Sing your sweet--est songs to me— 'Tis the -night, Came a spir--it veiled in white; I knew it could be none but thee, Bride of grave of Eu-la-lie. Sing your sweet--est songs to me— 'Tis the grave of Eu-la-

Death, lost Eu-la-lie. I knew it could be none but thee, Bride of Death, lost Eu-la-
